COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 9TH, 1878.

WITH the exception of rather more enquiry in the Bazaar for Piece Goods there is little alteration to report in any of our markets. No change was made in the Bank of Bombay's rates of interest and discount at the meeting of Directors held this afternoon.

Home telegrams continue to report general dulness in business. In Consols an advance of ¼ per cent. has taken place. Rentes are not quoted. Enfaced Rupee Paper continues at Rs. 77½ for Fours and Rs. 81 for Fours-and-half.

A further payment of £200,000 into the Bank of England is reported. The market rate of discount continues at 4½ per cent. for 3 months' sight Bills.

In Liverpool the Cotton Market closed quiet with sales amounting to 7,000 bales, of which 1,000 were Surats. Quotations are unchanged at 6 9-16 per lb. for Mid. Orleans and 4 15-16d. per lb. for Fair Dhollera.

The American telegrams of yesterday still quote Mid. Uplands at 10¾ cents per lb. but Futures for January delivery are 1-16 dearer, the quotation now being 10 7-16 cents. per lb.

The Receipts at the U. S. ports compare with the two previous seasons as follows:—

	1878.	1877.	1876.
Five days' Receipts	73,000	48,000	71,000
Total since 1st Sept.	449,000	209,000	429,000

In the Manchester Market Piece Goods yesterday were quiet but steady at previous rates.

In the London General Produce Markets Cocoanut Oil was unchanged at £48–15 for Ceylon and £65 per ton for Cochin. In Coffee Mid. Plantation Ceylon has given way 6d. per cwt., being quoted at 107s. There is no alteration in either good Ordinary Native Ceylon or Mysore, which are still quoted at 74s. and 81s. respectively. The week's Landings amount to 500 tons, the Deliveries to 1,000, and the Stock held on the 7th inst. was 19,000 tons. The Linseed Market is dull and Rapeseed quiet.

STERLING EXCHANGE here has again been very quiet with buyers at about 1-32d. below yesterday's quotations. Very little has been done pending the sale of Council Bills in London to-day. The quotation of 51½d. per oz. for Bar Silver which Reuter gives is not confirmed by private messages, in which 51d. is still the rate named. Our to-day's quotations are:—

Bank Bills, on demand	1s. 7 11-16d.	per Rs.
Do. 6 months' sight	1s. 8 3-16d.	,,
Credits, 3 ,, ,,	1s. 8 5-32d.	,,
Documents, 4 ,, ,,	1s. 8 7-32d.	,,
France 3 ,, ,,	2-14	,,

GOVERNMENT PAPER is weak at Rs. 95 to Rs. 95½ for Four and Fours and-a-half and Rs. 100½ for New Fours-and-a-half.

The SHARE MARKET has been steadier to-day with a better feeling generally, and although some of the Spinning and Weaving Companies have still a downward tendency, others have recovered the recent decline. Other shares are also generally steady.

FREIGHTS having declined to 7s. 6d. per ton, via Canal to Liverpool, cannot go much lower, but even at this rate there is little cargo offering. It has not been a question of rate, however, for some time past, as produce is still only obtainable in small quantities.

LINSEED AND RAPESEED are unchanged.

COTTON is rather steadier. A sale of 150 bales Barsee at Rs. 185 per candy is reported, but with this exception we have not heard of any transactions for Export.

PIECE GOODS.—The Market is decidedly firmer, and as the feeling of distrust which has been manifested by dealers during the past week wears away, we may look for an improved demand.

In COALS there is nothing doing.

SPECIAL TELEGRAMS FOR THE BOMBAY GAZETTE.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENTS.)

THE FRONTIER FORCES.

PESHAWAR, Oct. 8.

Further advance improbable for some days. The Guides, 1st Sikhs, and Mountain Battery have reinforced Jumrand. The 17th Foot and Horse Artillery Battery from Rawal Pindi have left Cherat for this.

Major General Roberts leaves Kohat to-morrow. The 5th P. I. start next day towards Thull.

It is rumoured that a letter arrived yesterday stating that the Amir's reinforcements for Ali Musjid still arrive. Eight of the Amir's regular Regiments are now there with 18 guns.

LAHORE, Oct. 9.

The situation is more advanced. A peaceful solution of the difficulty is not expected. A collision in the Kyber is supposed to be imminent. The troops there are being reinforced. The march of the Mooltan column is delayed for want of supplies; the carriage arrangements have almost broken down.

YAKUB KHAN.

LAHORE, Oct. 9.

The Lahore paper learns on good authority that Yakub Khans has been released, and has gone to Kandahar to take command. Ali Musjid is reinforced by ten regiments. Rumours prevail that the Russians have seized Yarkand.

DERA GHAZI KHAN, Oct. 8.

The following regiments have marched from Dera Ghazi Khan to Quetta:—1st and 2nd Punjab Cavalry, 29th Bombay Native Infantry, 19th and 26th Native Infantry. 70th Regiment, and F 2-4 battery of Artillery march shortly. The 9th Bengal Cavalry is at Rajanpore. The troops march via Rajanpore, Bandowali, Bagtee, Dera, and Sebri. Preparing to construct a bridge of boats at Mithankote. It is believed that the main force for Quetta will reach Rajanpore via Khanpore on the Indus Valley Railway and Mithankote. The floods have done much damage. The Dera Ghazi Cavalry and Infantry lines are quite destroyed, but the roads are dry and practicable for troops.

QUETTA, Oct. 8.

A detachment of Jacob's Rifles is expected today. The Mule Battery and 3rd Sind Horse were ordered up a fortnight ago but are still at Jacobabad. The delay is due to floods. Everything is quiet at Quetta.

THE AFGHAN QUESTION.

LONDON, Oct. 9.

The Times supports the policy of the Viceroy of India, and says that our action and the future relations between England and Afghanistan will greatly depend on the conduct of the Ameer. It will be necessary to take ample guarantees for the safety of the frontier of India without consulting Russia or any other Power in the matter. England, the Times adds, would gladly see complete independence in Afghanistan, provided the Ameer was friendly, but that if he insists on acting towards us as an enemy he must take the consequences.

AFFAIRS AT MANDALAY.

RANGOON, Oct. 9.

Latest advices from Mandalay, dated the 6th instant, state that all was well, and that the king's funeral was to take place on the 7th. It is not considered likely that any disturbances will now arise. Business in the teak forests is suspended owing to the labourers having been ordered to become soldiers.

One of the King's sons has arrived in Rangoon.

THE MAILS.

LONDON, Oct. 8.

The Bombay Mails of the 20th ultimo arrived at Brindisi yesterday.

STEAMER MOVEMENT.

STEAMER REPORTS.

GALLE, Oct. 9, 11-41 A.M.

H. M. S. Iron Duke sailed yesterday for China.

THE TRANSFER LOAN.

The total amount of the 5½ per cent. loan transferred to the Transfer Loan at the Bank of England is Rs. 3,79,03,700, additional Rs. 49,45,100 having been transferred at home under notification of the 23rd September. The amount of additional Indian transfers not yet known.

THE MUNICIPAL (DRAINAGE) LOAN.

We understand that the Bank of Bengal has tendered for the whole amount of the Municipal loan of twenty-seven lakhs of rupees at 98¼. The loan did not attract much favour in Bombay, the whole of the local tenders only amounting, we hear, to a lakh and a half of rupees. We presume that the Bank of Bengal's tender will be gratefully accepted, though the rate of interest the Municipality will have to pay will, of course, now exceed five per cent., the loan not being tendered for at par.

The 15th Hussars, commanded by Colonel Swindley, leave Meerut on the 15th inst. en route to Mooltan, to join the reserve force now assembling at that station.

H. E. THE GOVERNOR left Poona on Tuesday night for Mahableshwur. The following is the itinerary of His Excellency's tour:—

Gondolee to Satara	13th "
Satara to Mahableshwar about	15th "

subject to alteration.

THE question of the assessment of Government lands and buildings to Municipal rates agitated the Town Council yesterday, as it has done on numerous previous occasions. The subject was mooted by Mr. Nowrojee Furdoonjee, who called on the Municipal Commissioner to communicate to the Council the revised assessment of Government lands and buildings made by the Assessor and the fresh revision prepared by the Committee appointed by Government last year, and also the result of the application made to Government to increase their contribution to the Municipality for the consolidated rate. The Commissioner submitted a memorandum which showed that the amount of the revised assessment arrived at by the Government Committee was Rs. 56,535-4-10, and stated that Government had passed a resolution declaring that they "saw no reason for increasing their present very liberal payment of Rs. 50,000 a year" on account of house and water rates. Mr. Nowrojee Furdoonjee was of opinion that the Municipality were clearly entitled to receive the full amount of Rs. 56,535 fixed by the Committee appointed by Government as the fair assessment on the net value of Government lands and buildings, and he moved a resolution giving formal expression to that opinion, and recommending the Corporation to make another appeal to Government. The Hon. Dossabhoy Framjee did not think they had a good case to go to Government again at present when the point had just been deliberately settled. He proposed as an amendment, "that Government be moved to increase their payment to the Municipality on account of rates, on completion of the public buildings now in course of construction." After some discussion, Mr. Nowrojee's notice of motion was withdrawn. There was no other matter of importance discussed, except Sir Frank Souter's motion condemning the conduct of Mr. Nowrojee Furdoonjee, in bringing what Sir Frank in his speech styled "calumnious charges" against officers of the Municipality without notice, and without substantiating them, and proposing that in future "in the event of members desiring to bring forward instances of grave misconduct on the part of any Municipal officers, such as showing partiality and favour in the discharge of their duties, the usual formal notice of motion be required beforehand, and that the Reporters of the Press be requested to withdraw from the Council-room pending such discussions." Every member present except the Chairman spoke to the motion, and the majority opposed it, the last clause especially being received with almost unanimous disfavour. Mr. Nowrojee Furdoonjee reiterated his intention of bringing forward instances in support of the complaints (he objected to their being called charges) which he made several months ago, as soon as he shall have had time to properly test and verify them. The result was that Sir F. Souter withdrew his motion, resting content with the expression of opinion by several members of the Council that to make allegations against officers of the Municipality without proof was extremely objectionable.

THE Civil and Military Gazette—The capacities of the Indus Valley State Railway, as far as regards the conveyance of troops in the present emergency, are limited to a very small portion of the line, and even on that the railway would be obliged to apply to its neighbour the Scinde, Punjab, and Delhi line for the carriages for the purpose, for their own rolling stock is utterly inadequate to the undertaking. The breaks on the line which were made by the floods in the early part of September remained untouched up to a few days ago, when the Engineer-in-Chief visited the spot. He, before seeing the breaks, expressed an opinion that diversions might be made in a short time, but he could not have been aware of the large quantity of water there is on each side of the line; engineering skill, however, regards lightly difficulties that to inexperienced eyes seem insurmountable; but even if in a short time the line should be open through its entire length, the rolling stock is so defective that, without help from another line, troops could not be conveyed in any number. There are only two first class carriages at present on the line, and a few second and third class carriages besides, and there are about sixty carriages of all classes in the workshops at Kurrachee, in various stages of preparation, but some time must pass before these are ready, so that if the line were open throughout for traffic, the conveyance of troops would be a difficult matter. The carriages are, however, being constructed on the newest principles, and can be turned into omnibuses if required, the doors can be enlarged to admit a dooly, the seats are all removable, and the ends of each carriage can be opened to allow the Surgeon to pass through whilst the train is in motion. These arrangements are satisfactory, but they are not at present of any service. If the line can be opened throughout speedily, the deficiencies in rolling stock might be in a measure supplied, but we fear that the breaks in the line will be found more formidable than they are now thought to be.

IT is reported that Dr. Bomford will be appointed Civil Surgeon of Simla as a reward for his eighteen months' good service in the Madras famine districts. Dr. Bomford is a young man for so important an appointment, but he has already won the reputation of a skilled and careful surgeon.

THE Pioneer—In the Frontier Force there seems to be a great deal of sore feeling about the small proportion of frontier regiments told off to take part in the expedition, as at present constituted. They look upon Cabul and the North-West border as more or less their own preserves, and that being debarred from such service, that of China, Abyssinia, Cyprus, and all such campaigns beyond seas which fall solely to the lot of the regular army under the Commander-in-Chief, they should be allowed a generous share of all border affairs. In the present case, out of the whole force for Cabul, only two Cavalry and four Infantry Regiments belonging to the frontier, have been warned for service. On the other hand, the 23rd Pioneers have been brought down all the way from Simla, and a Cavalry regiment ordered up to Kohat from Jhelum, while the 5th Punjab Cavalry, already stationed at Kohat, is not down in the list at all, and will have, it appears, to remain in garrison there. Little are sent on to the front. The Frontier Force was once described in a speech of Sir Hugh Rose's as "the point of the lance." But now it complains it is being treated as the butt.

RECENT information received from Kabul states, that Abdulla Jan died of heart disease.

HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF KASHMIR has proposed to the British authorities to arrange measures, in view of the scarcity in Kashmir, for the more speedy importation of grain, and to facilitate the emigration of those distressed Kashmiris who may be unable to obtain support.

THE Athenæum states that Mr. Archibald Forbes will contribute an article to the October number of the Nineteenth Century, entitled "The Fiasco of Cyprus." The Rev. Mr. Mackonochie will publish the draft of a suggested Act of Parliament for the Disestablishment of the Church. Mr. Gladstone, Lord Stratford de Redcliffe, and Mr. Mallock will be also among the contributors.

THE Pall Mall Gazette, Sept. 20:—This morning a correspondent of the Daily Telegraph at Constantinople repeats an ugly little story which we printed on Wednesday. General Scobeleff has openly declared, in the presence of the representatives of various European Powers, that the Czar means to keep a force of 100,000 men in Bulgaria and 45,000 in Roumelia, spite of the Treaty of Berlin. Presumably, the attention of the Russian Government will be directed to this somewhat reckless statement.

THE Lords of the Admiralty have appointed Vice-Admiral R. Coole, C.B., as Commander-in-Chief of the China station, in succession to Vice-Admiral C. F. Hillyar, C.B., who is promoted to the rank of Admiral.

IT is understood that Sir Thomas Seccombe, K.C.S.I., the Assistant Under-Secretary of State for India, will retire early next year. He will be succeeded in his appointment as Financial Secretary by Mr. Henry Waterfield, at present Secretary in the Department of Statistics and Commerce. The department of Reporter on the Products of India, at the head of which Dr. Forbes Watson has presided for so many years, has been abolished, the work of the department being transferred to Mr. Waterfield's present department, Dr. Watson retaining his appointment as Director of the Indian Museum at South Kensington.

THE Sheffield Telegraph says:—"Some extraordinary revelations were made on September 19 at a meeting of the shareholders of the Chesterfield and North Derbyshire Banking Company, held at the Angel Hotel, Chesterfield, for the purpose of voluntarily winding up the concern and to appoint a liquidator. Mr. Gratton gave an explicit statement of the position of the Bank, showing that it had lost the whole of its paid-up capital, and probably more; and the whole of its reserve fund. The late manager of the Bank was indebted to it in the sum of £6,000, and the Scarborough Brewery Company, of which he was managing director, to the extent of £26,000. It was further mentioned that the interest on the last named sum had never been calculated since the year 1868, it being evident that the Bank could not get it. Nevertheless, year by year, the sum owing by the brewery company had increased. Other disclosures of an equally astounding character were made, and after the appointment of a committee of investigation the meeting was adjourned for a fortnight."

THE Army and Navy Gazette says:—"Two anecdotes of British military life in Cyprus are being mysterously circulated. One tells how a Bombay Lancer, carrying despatches, was attacked by three Greeks, from whom he managed to withdraw to a convenient distance only to wheel about, charge with couched lance, and transfix one of the three would-be robbers; the other two fled. The second anecdote relates that a Goorkha was waylaid by six Greeks. The Goorkha managed to kill four of his assailants with his kookerie, and was then himself killed. That such occurrences should happen without becoming publicly known has to be accounted for; consequently, the repetition of the stories is generally accompanied with the statement that 'the affair had to be hushed up.'"

AN officer of the Russian general staff, Captain Pusgrevski, who served with the army of the Danube during the whole of the late campaign, has published in the last number of Voyennii Sbornik some remarks, based upon the experience gained by himself and his comrades during the war, on the dress and equipment of soldiers in the field, which are well worthy of notice. The best head-dress for troops of all arms of the service is, the writer is convinced, the field cap—a cap with a broad, flat, overhanging top—with a peak. The cap is light, protects the head and eyes from the sun, while by placing inside it a folded cloth, or even a piece of paper, it can be made into a very warm covering for the head in winter. During the late campaign the Russian Guard, it is well known, left their helmets behind and wore the field cap only. The uniform of the soldier, the Russian writer continues, should not be shaped to the body, but should be cut without any contraction at the waist; so that a man may be able to wear beneath it warm clothing and flannel belts; and the white linen uniform worn by the Russian soldier should be replaced by grey, so as to render the troops less distinctly visible to the enemy. For the knapsack now in use in the Russian army, which is very similar to the old-fashioned pack still carried in English militia regiments, the writer recommends the substitution of a simple water-proof bag with a strap, in order that the soldier may be able to change the position and manner of carrying his load frequently during a march. The knapsack or bag should also not always contain the same articles; it being very desirable that the kit should be altered to suit the circumstances of the campaign; that it should, for instance, comprise different articles during the operations in summer to those carried in winter. If this precaution be not taken the soldier will be very likely to get rid of, or at all events will not take any great trouble to preserve, articles which add to the load he has to carry, and which at the time appear to him to be superfluous and useless. Finally, the writer suggests that the second pair of boots in the pack might be replaced with advantage by a good supply of articles for mending and repairing clothing and accoutrements.

ARRIVAL OF THE NEW COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.

LIEUT.-GENERAL WARRE, C.B., the newly appointed Commander-in-Chief of the Bombay Army, arrived here by the Mail steamer yesterday afternoon. The steamer anchored about 3-30 p.m., when General Brooke, Colonel Maude, and Colonel Justice proceeded in a Government steam barge on board the Mail steamer to escort the Chief to the bunder. His Excellency was accompanied by Mrs. Warre and Captain Spencer, his aide-de-camp, formerly Brigade Major at Bombay. His Excellency on landing at the bunder steps was officially received by General Aitchison and was introduced to most of the officers present on the occasion, among whom were Colonel Barclay, Colonel Hailes, Captain Carew, Superintendent of Marine, Captain Cook-Collis, Brigade Major, Captain Parker, acting Master Attendant, Dr. Anderson, of the 8th Hussars, and Captain Heath. His Excellency, with Mrs. Warre, immediately afterwards drove away in General Aitchison's carriage to the Cooperage, Esplanade. The usual salute was fired from the land Battery. The intended guard of honor was dispensed with, and only a couple of police sowars rode before His Excellency's carriage to the Cooperage.

BOMBAY.

THE following is a statement of cash in the public Treasuries and at credit of the Government in the Presidency Banks and their Branches, on the 1st of the month of August 1878, with the corresponding figures on the same date in 1877 and 1876:—1876 Rs. 12,95,51,966, ; 1877, Rs. 11,25,58,666 ; 1878, Rs. 12,98,07,659.

THE WINE TRADE—We are informed that Messrs. Cutler, Palmer & Co., wine and spirit shippers of Bordeaux, London, Bombay, and Calcutta, intend opening branches of their house in Madras and Lahore next January, under the management of a gentleman educated for the wine trade.

A SHAMAN DESERTER.—Daniel Macauley, a seaman of the British ship Deademona, was yesterday sentenced by Mr. C. P. Cooper to six months' hard labour for deserting from that ship, of which he was an articled seaman.

FURIOUS DRIVING.—Sulliman Cassum, a shopkeeper, and Cowasjee Furdunjee, a cash buggy driver, were yesterday each fined Rs. 10, or in default to six weeks' hard labour by Mr. W. Webb for driving their respective vehicles in a rash and negligent manner on the public roads.

THEFT.—Yesterday, at the Fort Police Court, a Hindoo merchant named Bhanjee Khanjee appeared before Kr. C. P. Cooper and obtained a warrant for the arrest of one Govindram, charging him with theft of a bale of long cloth, valued at Rs. 400, alleged to have been stolen from a number of bales lying at the Boree Bunder station belonging to complainant. The accused is said to have absconded to Sheagaum with the stolen property.

THEFT DETECTED.—On Monday last Mr. Inspector Sweeney, at present stationed at Colaba, had his suspicions aroused on seeing three Hindoos, apparently under the influence of liquor, one of whom (named Rama Pandoo) was displaying a quantity of cash and creating a disturbance. Mr. Sweeney on enquiry discovered that Pandoo was a servant in the employ of the Sergeants' Mess of H. M.'s 66th Regiment stationed at Colaba; and upon instituting further inquiries discovered that Sergeant Parker had lost a purse containing currency notes of the collective value of Rs. 50 on the previous night. The man Pandoo was at once suspected to have committed the theft, and upon being charged with it he handed up the purse, and also pointed out the several parties from whom he had made purchases with the money. On Tuesday last he was charged with the theft of the said property before Mr. Nana Morojee, and on conviction he was sentenced to be flogged fifteen lashes.

A FLIGHT of locusts, travelling from north-west to south-east, passed over Dhond last Sunday afternoon. A gentleman who made careful observations states that the flying host was twelve miles in length and from a quarter to half a mile in breadth. It was like an immense cloud, and the sun was dimly visible through it. The locusts lighted down on a field of bajri where the gentleman above referred to was, and in a very few minutes devoured every grain in the field. They crowded together on each ear, and thus in an incredibly short time consumed the whole crop. They passed on from Dhond and lighted down again on a field at 176 mileage of the G. I. P. Railway, and there consumed another whole crop.—Deccan Herald.

THE VOLUNTEER MARCH OUT.

THE first parade and march out of the Volunteers, which was announced for Saturday last and was postponed, will take place next Saturday afternoon, the place of assembly being the Town Hall, and the time five o'clock. The uniform to be worn is not full dress, but white, with helmet and accoutrements.

UTTERING FORGED GOVERNMENT CURRENCY NOTES.

ASSER LALLJEE was brought up on remand and charged on Tuesday last, at the Fort Police Court, before Mr. C. P. Cooper, with having on the 25th September last fraudulently and dishonestly used as genuine a promissory note of the Government of India for Rs. 1,000, preferred against him by Walia Natha, a Marwaree shroff.

Mr. R. V. Hesra, the Public Prosecutor, appeared to conduct the case for the prosecution, and Mr. Gill, barrister-at-law, instructed by Mr. Hore (of Messrs. Rimington, Hore, and Conroy), appeared for the defence.

The Marwaree informant was recalled and further examined for the prosecution by Mr. Hearn, after which he was cross-examined by Mr. Gill at some length, when the attention of the learned counsel was drawn to the cash account book kept by the witness's firm in which the transaction was entered, which showed several fresh leaves, as if they had been recently added. The witness explained that he was in the habit of adding new leaves. The witness could not account for the fact that the name of the party with whom he had this transaction was not entered in the cash book, although the individual gave his name as Pragjee Dowjee. His explanation was, that he did not suppose that there was any intention to cheat him. The cross-examination of this witness was not closed, when the case was adjourned for further hearing to this day (Thursday).

THE MALTA EXPEDITION.

Bombay Castle, 6th October 1878.

GENERAL ORDER No. 788.

THE Governor in Council has much pleasure in publishing a despatch from the Government of India in the Military Department, dated Simla, 18th September 1878, conveying to the officers and Departments of the Bombay Government concerned the satisfaction felt by the Right Honourable the Governor General in Council at the general efficiency of the arrangements for the embarkation of the force recently despatched to Malta.

The Governor in Council is glad to learn from a despatch received from Major-General Ross, C. B., Commanding Indian Expeditionary Force, to the Quarter-Master General of the Army in India, dated Malta, 21st June 1878, extracts from which are published herewith, that notwithstanding the rapid manner in which the Expedition was fitted out and despatched from Bombay, no complaints, except those of a trivial character easily remedied, were made.

Major-General Ross also remarks that a further proof of the excellence of the arrangements is afforded by the small number of sick men, followers, and horses disembarked at Malta:—

"I am directed to forward herewith, for the information of His Excellency the Governor in Council, a copy of the papers (from the Quarter-Master General in India, dated the 2nd August 1878, and enclosures) relating to the embarkation at Bombay and Cannanore of the Indian Expeditionary Force, its progress to the Mediterranean and its disembarkation at Malta.

"The Right Honourable the Governor General in Council views with much pleasure the testimony afforded by these papers of the general efficiency of the arrangements for the embarkation of the Force, and I am to request that an expression of the satisfaction of the Government of India may be conveyed to the Officers and Departments concerned.

"I am desired by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief to submit, for the information of the Government of India, the accompanying report, dated 21st June 1878, with annexures, from Major-General J. Ross, C. B., announcing the safe arrival at Malta of the Indian Expeditionary Force under his command, and remarking upon various points connected with the embarkation of the Expedition at Bombay, the passage of the several transports through the Red Sea and Suez Canal, and the disembarkation and accommodation of the Force at Malta, &c.

"It will afford the Government of India much pleasure to observe that General Ross bears testimony to the general excellence of the arrangements made at Bombay for the fitting out of the Expedition."

"From this it will be gathered that the average duration of passage was 30 days, or a little more. The voyage of the buggalow Jabree is not taken into account, as, owing to mishaps in the Red Sea, she was cast off and towed to Suez by Her Majesty's Ship Spartan, and at Port Said the ponies and followers were transhipped into the steamer Goa sent from this to fetch them.

"It will afford His Excellency great pleasure and the Government of Bombay great gratification to hear that notwithstanding the rapid manner in which the Expedition was fitted out and despatched, there have been no complaints, except of a trivial nature which could be and were easily remedied.

"A further proof of the general excellence of the arrangements is afforded by the reports which show the casualties in men and horses during the voyage, and the number of sick who landed with the Force."

By order of His Excellency the Honourable the Governor in Council,

JOHN A. M. MACDONALD, Colonel,
Secretary to Government.

GOVERNMENT ADVERTISEMENTS IN PUBLIC JOURNALS.

THE following extract from the proceedings of the Government of India in the Home Department under date Simla, the 4th October 1878, is published:—

In Resolution Nos. 390-406, dated the 27th February last, the Governor-General in Council remarked upon the practice, whereby private advertisements were published in Government official gazettes, and on the custom of publishing advertisements and notices of great public importance only in newspapers, which are small readers of the public have access to official gazettes. Instructions were issued in that Resolution to the effect—

(1) that the publication of private advertisments in official gazettes should, as far as possible, be discouraged;
(2) that under no circumstances should such private advertisements be admitted to the columns of gazettes at rates more favourable than those charged by newspapers, save in the case of public bodies (such as the Asiatic Society), which may already enjoy the privilege of inserting their advertisements free;
(3) that many Government advertisements might, with advantage both to the public and to Government, be published in the newspapers, as well as, or instead of, in the official gazettes, such, for instance as—
(a) Postal or Telegraph Department notices; Marine Department notices; State Railway notices; Currency Department notices;
(b) advertisements regarding transactions in which Government is to be either a buyer or seller in one of the many departments, which have cause either to buy or sell goods.

2. The Governor-General in Council, when thus pointing out to Local Governments and Administrations, and to public departments the expediency of giving wider publicity to advertisements, abstained from laying down any precise definition of the advertisements to which extended publicity should be given, and left the matter to the discretion of the several local and departmental authorities. It appears that, as yet, very imperfect action has been taken on the orders of 1st February last. The Press Commissioner has brought to notice, among other cases, the following:—

(1) Punjab Gazette for 4th July 1878.—An advertisement inviting tenders for the supply of malt liquor to British troops during 1879, at stations reaching from Mhow to Jhansi; an advertisement of the Punjab Bank, Rs. 20 per copy; an advertisement of the Cinchona febrifuge, which was to be had at the Botanical Garden, Calcutta, for Re. 20 per one-lb. tin;
(2) a letter from the Head Commissioner of Currency, and from the Financial Department of the Government of India, refusing to sanction expenditure not heretofore incurred, for advertising the loss of currency notes;
(3) a letter from the Home Department of the Government of India intimating that it was not considered necessary to re-publish, in the public journals, a notification regarding the presentation of memorial to Her Majesty the Queen-Empress;
(4) Gazette of India, dated 8th June 1878.—A notice to mariners regarding a light at Colombo; and invitation to persons who might be willing to take a lease of the Great Coco Island;
(5) Assam Gazette, dated 30th April 1878—A section of the Gazette set apart for advertisements and notices by private Companies and Corporations containing advertisements of Anglo-Indian Companies, applications for patent wheel-hoes, rooms to let at Shillong, kerosene oil for sale, a strong teak-wood dog-cart, and a manual of kitchen gardening.
(6) Postal notices—Of unclaimed letters, of alterations in the rates of postage, of the Simla carriage dak, of the despatch of mail steamers, some of which were sent to newspapers marked as "not advertisements;"
(7) Madras (Fort St. George Gazette, dated 7th May 1878, containing calls for tenders from the Commissariat Department, from the Harbour works, from the Army Clothing Department, from the Superintending Engineer, Simla Water-Works; notices of the cinchona febrifuge, of sandal-wood sales in Coimbatore, of water-land sales on the Nilgiri hills, of famine cloths for sale in Salem, and of vacant clerkships, surveyships and schoolmasterships in Government and in private establishments.

(3) His Excellency the Governor-General in Council believes that the probable disclosure of these advertisements appeared in public journals as well as in the gazettes, in such cases, there can be no objection to the publication of such notices in the Government gazettes also. It is understood, also, that in some provinces, like Assam or Nagpore, notices are published in the official gazette, because there is no local newspaper at all. But, even in such cases the departure from the principles laid down in the Resolution of February last either affects the mischief which may happen to circulate in such a province, or else prevents the successful establishment of a local journal. Such local newspapers, though they may have their shortcomings, must, in the end, do much good to the provinces where they may be started.

4. The Governor-General in Council recognises that it can rarely be expedient for a Government department to publish its advertisements in every journal in the country though, in the case of some postal notices, such publication might be decidedly beneficial. Each Government or Department would naturally select one or more journals, such as circulate most largely among the communities for whose information a notice was intended. Some notices would be published in vernacular journals, and some in English newspapers. His Excellency the Governor-General in Council is confident that after this second expression of the views of the Government of India, public servants of all grades in departments will do the best to give effect to those views. In some departments, there may at first be some small additional expense; but, in the end, the objects of the public and of the Government will be better served.

5. In order that there may be no doubt about the intentions of the Government of India, the Publisher of the Gazette of India will be directed not to publish, without special orders of the Government of India, any notice or advertisement, from those which he is compelled by public law to publish by law, unless the officer sending the notice or advertisement certifies that it has been either published, or sent for publication, in at least one public journal.

STATE OF THE SEASON AND PROSPECTS OF THE CROPS

For the week ending 1st October.

GENERAL REMARKS.—In Madras general prospects continue good: unseasonable rain has again fallen in South Kanara and Malabar, and in Kurnool the weather has been unfavourable to standing dry crops in places; rain is needed in parts of Vizagapatam and Coimbatore. The number on relief works, as well as the number gratuitously relieved, exhibits a considerable decrease: the figures are 83,964 and 53,248 respectively, against 98,738 and 58,874 in the previous week, the decrease being 14,774 and 5,326 severally. In Mysore the crops are in excellent condition and prices are falling. The numbers on relief works and in receipt of gratuitous relief are again less, though the diminution this week is small. In the Bombay Presidency prospects on the whole remain good: the river in Sind continues to fall, but it is still very much higher than it was at this time last year. Prospects in the Central Provinces have generally improved: ploughing for the rabi is progressing: high prices however continue: cholera is decreasing. In Berar the crops damaged by excessive rain are recovering and prospects are now good. Throughout Central India crops are favourable, but locusts have done some damage: being caused by locusts, but otherwise prospects on the whole continue satisfactory. General prospects in Bengal are still very promising: rain has fallen in all the districts, but more is needed in a few places; injury to rice on low lands in parts of Bengal proper from excessive rain continue. In Assam there is no change. In Burma rain has fallen during the week and prospects are on the whole good. In the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, as well as in the Punjab, prospects continue satisfactory.

EUROPEAN AND OTHER EXTRACTS

SUMMARY OF THE ENGLISH NEWS.

SPEAKING at a Conservative banquet at York, Mr. Lowther, Chief Secretary for Ireland, referred to the troubles in Eastern Europe, remarking that the removal of the Ottoman rule in the disturbed districts had certainly not contributed to the peace of the world. He thought Europe would scarcely look favourably on a revival of the Eastern Question through the inordinate ambition or the restless agitation of Greece.

The deaths are announced of Mr. John Hilton, F.R.S., Surgeon-Extraordinary to the Queen, aged 73; of Mr. Reginald James Blewitt, who represented the Monmouthshire boroughs from 1807 to 1852, aged 79; of Professor C. Seager, of the Catholic College, Kensington, who died while at Florence attending the Congress of Orientalists; and of General Tulloch, C.B., the oldest general officer in the Indian Army, aged 90.

Hobart Pasha has left London for Constantinople, having been somewhat unexpectedly ordered to return to his duties as Inspector-General of the Turkish Fleet.

The Fenian prisoners Condon and Melody, who lately received the Royal pardon, have been released.

The inquest held before Mr. Carttar at Woolwich into the deaths of the persons lost through the late terrible disaster in the Thames is still proceeding. Among the principal witnesses who have been examined are the chief and second mates, the helmsman, the engineer, and other members of the crew of the Princess Alice, their evidence being mainly directed to the speed, the relative positions, and the steering of the two steamers at the time of the collision. The owners of both vessels, and also the friends of some of the deceased passengers, are represented by counsel at the inquiry.

The inquest upon the 44 bodies picked up in the neighbourhood of Barking, 32 of which were identified, terminated in a verdict of "found drowned." An open verdict was also returned at the inquest on the bodies recovered at Poplar, the jury appending to their decision a recommendation that sufficient life-preserving appliances should be provided in passenger steamers for everybody on board.

The Mansion-house Fund for the relief of the sufferers now exceeds £23,000. Some of the donors express a wish that the surplus, if there be any, should be appropriated to the benefit of the families left destitute by the catastrophe in Wales.

The Abercarne colliery, in which the awful explosion occurred last week by which some 250 lives were sacrificed, having caught fire, the mine had to be flooded from the neighbouring canal in order to extinguish the flames. The water is now being pumped out again, before the work of recovering the bodies of the unfortunate miners can be proceeded with. Besides the local subscriptions set on foot for the relief of the 121 widows and 363 orphans of the lost miners, a Relief Fund has been opened by the Lord Mayor of London, to which the Queen has sent 100 guineas. This fund has already reached £8,000.

Mrs. Bravo, whose name was prominently connected with the "Balham Mystery," died at Southsea on Tuesday. A coroner's jury found that her death was due to the excessive use of stimulants.

Business in the open market has not been very active during the past week, and in face of an increased supply the rates charged for accommodation are tending downwards. As regards the stock markets, investment business is generally said to be duller than ever. As between dealers, however, a certain number of variations are marked each day, but these last night left quotations as a rule at about their previous week's level. Two or three of the chief coal-carrying American railways have been in more demand this week at higher prices.

The resistance offered to the Austrian occupation of Bosnia continues to be very obstinate. The latest official accounts received at Vienna, however, state that the offensive has begun with the passage of the Save by Field-Marshal Bileki's force, who have been wholly unchecked, the troops having occupied the line from Sakova and Gradacac towards the Bosna. In the district of Banjaluka the disarmament of the inhabitants goes on undisturbed. General Zach was again advancing towards Bihach, and Reihlander's Brigade was also within a mile of that stronghold, which the insurgents are said to be ready to surrender.

From Belgrade it is reported that the Austrians have burnt Broka, on the Save, in consequence of the treason of the inhabitants, and that Bielina, Tuzla, and Svornik are the only parts of Eastern Bosnia which remain to be occupied.

The Porte has prepared a Circular Memorandum to be sent to the Powers, refuting the charge of delay on its part in executing the stipulations of the Berlin Treaty. The assassins of Mehemet Ali are to be rigorously punished, and all the Sultan's international obligations loyally fulfilled.

Midhat Pasha has received permission to return to Turkey, on condition of not living at Constantinople, and a pension has been granted him.

The British scheme of reforms for Asia Minor has been accepted by the Turkish Council of Ministers, and approved by the Sultan, although a written answer has not yet been communicated to Sir A. H. Layard on the subject. An Envoy from the Ameer of Afghanistan to the Sultan has arrived at Constantinople.

The embarkation of the Russian troops at San Stefano still continues, the number who have left being estimated at 50,000.

The Russians having evacuated Erzeroum, Mousa Pasha has taken possession of the town, and issued a proclamation threatening to punish disturbers of the peace by martial law.

Military preparations continue at all the Servian arsenals, and at Belgrade a subsidy from Russia is daily expected.

M. Gambetta is on a tour in the south of France, where he is very favourably received. At a banquet given in his honour at Valence he urged the necessity of concord and conciliation among all shades of the Republican party.

A two days' debate occurred in the German Parliament on the anti-Socialist Bill. General Stolberg, the representative of Prince Bismarck, and also the Prince himself, spoke, calling on the Chamber to support the Government, and to protect the person of the Emperor and his subjects. The Bill was ultimately referred to a committee.

An International Congress of Orientalist scholars has been sitting at Florence.

The latest intelligence from the Transvaal is of a disquieting character. The Zulu police have mutinied, and the Zaffres are now assuming the offensive. They have attacked Fort Weber and surrounded Leydenburg. Many volunteers, dissatisfied with the policy of the Government, refuse to serve, and are returning home.

The Republican party in Massachusetts have adopted resolutions strongly favouring a resumption of specie payments, and denouncing General Butler as a repudiator.

Yellow fever still prevails extensively in the Southern States of America, but the new cases appear to be decreasing in some towns.

Balatchano to Vienna, M. Callimaki Catargi to Paris, and M

very heavy in the butt, which is usually of ebony with the end towards the point, for a foot or more, thin and pliable. As the amount of "side" or "twist" is dependent on the forward motion of the point of the cue being checked, more or less suddenly, on striking the ball, it follows that such a cue is better for this purpose than the old fashioned stiff, light one, by reason of the flexibility of its thin end, which yields of itself between the pressure of its heavy butt and the resistance of the ball that is struck, hence its point does not travel as far forward, and for the same circumstances, as that of the other. This ebony butted cue was the outcome of the introduction of the spot stroke and fast, true running tables, which demand power of cue with gentle strength. An average "Roberts' cue" weighs about 17 oz., and is 4 feet 9 inches long, balances at about 14½ inches from the end of the butt. One can make quite as good a cue out of an ordinary ash one by weighting the butt with lead, and reducing the substances of the wood towards the points. I had such a cue that once belonged to Bowles, which in effect was almost identical with one of the modern kind. The ebony butt is, I believe, a French idea which was conceived years before I can remember.

Bowles had a fancy for cues with round butts. He maintained that the use of the ordinary butt, which is partly flat, so as to allow of its being employed in giving a miss, causes the top to become unevenly worn on account of the player getting accustomed to holding the butt in one particular manner. Anyhow, I think the round butt gives the pleasantest hold to the hand of the two.

Whether it was that formerly the absence of the fear of an unexpected exhibition of the spot stroke made us bolder, or whether we had more money than is knocking about at present, I do not know; but players in those days considered it incumbent on them to back their game, when they went to a public room, while the marker regarded a shilling "on" as an absolute right. How changed is the present generation! For the better probably? I remember this to Joe Bennett, the ex-champion, when playing with him at his rooms in Oxford Street one evening last year. "Yes," replied he; "it is quite the exception even to hear a bet offered except among friends. Billards has got very common, and amateurs play so well, that the sharps has'nt a chance."

The trenditional old gentleman who was always ready to take 10 out of 50 and play with his walking stick, which by the bye was an abnormally long one with a carefully tipped point concealed by the ferule; the proverbial one, who carried a piece of chalk in his waistcoat pocket and called the marker by his Christian name, figure no longer in the list of birds of prey against whom staid fathers have need to warn their verdant sons.

'Twas not thus long before this old hat was new, when the Dutchman, a middle aged, harmless-looking party, who might have passed master as a retired grocer, used to make his periodical visits in the provinces and Ireland. He was one of the finest pyramid players of his time, being about a ball worse than what young Roberts is now. He had an extraordinary talent for concealing his game and, whether winning or losing, was always ready to take odds about doing particular hazards. I remember seeing him, on one occasion, playing with "George," the Limerick marker, who at that time was the best player in Ireland. George, having got the "office," being unknown to the other, played dark and, a big bet being offered, received three balls. Being in luck, he managed to score 7 to his opponent's love, and then playing for safety left the white close to the bottom cushion with the remainder of the balls at the other end. The Dutchman coolly gave a miss, thereby jamming the white tight, though leaving a red ball "just possible." The impetuous Irishman, not being able to resist the chance, went out for it, and missed scoring. The other by a superlatively brilliant stroke got into position and won the game, and a hatful of money that he had put on at long odds. Some years after he lost the sight of one of his eyes by accident, and, that of the other beginning to fail, he had to give up making his profitable tours, and is now, I believe, a respectable tobacconist in Brighton. That London super mare was the home of Kentfield, the high priest of the old showy, graceful school, who used the spot and shoulder stroke, and not the elbow like our modern professors. Bowles, who was, for many years, second best to old Jack Roberts, also lived there. He taught the style which has been fatal to so many amateurs of keeping the elbow close to the side, turning the wrist in and the knuckles out, instead of keeping the hand in a line directly under the line of sight.

Years and years ago it might have been remarked that good pool players bent down far more than billiard players did when taking aim, the reason for their adopting this position being that they found it the best one for the steady, accurate stroke required at pool. Hence, when the hard, all round the table style at billiards was gradually discarded for the gentle and more telling game, so did players bend more and more down when making their strokes. Among first class players I can remember only Green, the champion of Scotland, who plays in the old style. He is one of the prettiest players in the world, though now out of the usual form, not having full mastery over the spot stroke. Joe Bennett's rule for getting into proper position is an excellent one for men of the ordinary height. It is as follows: Stand erect, a full cue's length from your ball, and facing it. Then take a long pace forward with the left foot and place the left hand so that its bridge will be about 9 inches away from your ball. Many players get down low enough, but they don't draw back the right foot sufficiently, hence they are obliged to screw themselves into a cramped and ugly attitude.

A peculiarity of almost all our first class players, which any one, who has seen them using the cue, could not have failed to have remarked, is that, as a rule, they strike their own ball very low, the reason being that, by doing so they thereby lessen the chance of its running foul as much as possible. An ivory billiard ball being turned out of the centre of the tusk, it follows that the half of it which was nearest to the point being denser, is heavier than the half towards the fang. Hence a ball when rolling will have a tendency to run foul towards the side at which it is heaviest, while, the slower it rolls, the greater will be the resulting deflection. Again, the less a ball rolls over and over on itself, while proceeding onward, the less will be tendency will it naturally have to "roll off" to its heavy side. Just as the action of "twist," which is imparted to a ball when struck low, tends to check the revolution of the ball, until it is gradually overcome by the friction against the nap of the cloth, so will it minimise the chance of the ball running foul. If we examine a carefully turned ivory billiard ball we shall see, by the manner in which the grain runs, that one diameter of the ball corresponds to what was the axis of the tusk; hence, when playing with our ball in hand, we should spot it so that the extremities (which may be readily seen) of this diameter should revolve one over the other, for then the right and left halves of the ball will be of identically the same weight. This is a very interesting and practical point which is well deserving the attention of amateurs. It has never, I believe, been mentioned before in print.

Although good players "put the drag on" constantly, I would advise the ordinary amateur to be chary of employing it, when playing for money, until he has quite mastered it, for the danger of "putting on" unmeant "side" may be greater than that of the ball running foul. Charley Wilson, the professional, pointed this out to me once when I was playing with him. "Your style," said he, "is too good for your class of play; take my advice and go in more for accuracy of strength and dividing the object ball than for putting on side and twist which you have not quite got hold of yet. Besides," added he, with a twinkle in his eye, "you won't mislead your opponents into thinking that you are a better player than you are." Few, indeed, seeing Master Charlie playing for the first time would guess that he had such a deadly knack of running up long breaks by the aid of those quiet, unobtrusive strokes of his. 'Tis not from want of skill that he does not figure among the foremost public players.

The mention of his name puts me in mind of rather an amusing sell which a marker, got during a match which Wilson played with a friend, giving him 300 points out of 700 up. The marker, being one of a very few present who knew the odds, by a bet made a bet that Wilson would make a break of 100 before the game was finished. This of course was readily taken. At first he did not seem to be in any hurry, but, getting into the last two hundred he woke up and quickly rattled off 98, leaving a very easy hazard for himself to complete the century. "I have won my bet," cried the marker, seeing the dead score that was on. "I may as well, then, give my antagonist a chance," replied Wilson, carefully missing it. Of course he thought from what the marker said; that he had actually made a break of a 100.

Another peculiarity of good professional players, to which I may with benefit, direct the attention of my readers, is the manner in which they form their "bridge," a method totally opposed to that employed by nine hundred and ninety-nine amateurs out of a thausand. They place almost the whole weight of the hand on the outer portion of the ball of the thumb, while they bring the thumb close up against the forefinger. Thus the cue rests on a firm arch, whose extremities are the tip of the forefinger and the ball of the thumb, I need hardly remark that, to insure rigidity, the forefinger should be perfectly straight. In this position the knuckle (which joins it to the back of the hand) of the little finger will be raised above the cloth a little higher than that of the forefinger.

One very sound reason for bringing the thumb close to the forefinger is that the cue will then have a hard groove, devoid of loose skin or flesh, to move backwards and forwards in. Observing this, I need hardly point out what a mistake it is to make a groove for the cue by separating the thumb from the fingers.

How common it is to see amateurs making a bridge by resting the outer edge of the little finger and palm of the hand, for their entire length, on the cloth, while the ball of the thumb is entirely raised from off it! By doing this they remove the support of the cue as much as possible from under it: hence their bridge is bound to move in the act of striking, and then they say "That ball of mine took a totally different side to what I gave it;" the fact being that it was struck on a totally different spot to that on which aim was taken.

I may mention in passing that, except with very foul balls, strokes should be played as gently as their proper execution may admit of; for the more strength is employed, the less is the amount of accuracy that can be obtained when striking a ball.

Among the best of good players in England, Roberts and Cook stand as superior to the remainder as old Jack Roberts did to those of his day. Many have given promise that has not been fulfilled, and as yet there is no young man. Fifteen years ago players looked to Dufton to do something big, but beyond teaching H. R. H. the Prince of Wales to handle the cue, writing an excellent book on the game, acquiring a name of "long Dufton," and finally dying in poverty, he did nothing. Joe Bennett, the pettiest of "all round" players, the best of all teachers (his rooms are in Oxford street about a hundred yards from the Circus, on the left hand side, going down to the Marble Arch), and professor of the doctrine that the player, when in the act of striking, should look at his own and not at the object ball, though he beat young Roberts once, when the latter was a bit off his play, has also been too delicate to stand the wear and tear of a long match. I remember his making a hundred consecutive spots playing one evening with me. By that time he could hardly see the ball and was quite knocked up. He studied, though very graceful, attitude entails the loss of too much time for a professional, and consequently he tires sooner than one who scores fast like young Roberts, who is the quickest player of the day. He undoubtedly, has a certain pull from his great rapidity. About two years ago Joe was playing in such fine form that he determined to come out in public again, and, if successful, to have another try for the championship. With this object he challenged Stanley and Tom Taylor (not Tumbler, to use Edmund Yates' expression,)—the former at the ordinary game and on a championship table, the latter on the small pocket table alone. I thought it a certainty for Bonnet and found a fiver of the stakes in each match. "I the demon!" After that he found that title with George Fordham and Mr. Spofforth), however got fixed on the spot and won his game as easily as Joe did with the tight pockets, which were not equally favourable to him when he met Taylor, who won two other return matches. So Joe had to resign his lofty aspirations. Taylor has also stuck in the ruck, from nervousness, I believe.

Stanley, who is about the best "plucked" 'un' that ever handled a cue, has also made no improvement for the last few years, the reason being, I should think, that his all round play is so poor. I often met at Roberts's rooms in Brighton a brother of "the demon's" who rejoices in the surname of Diggs, while another brother plays under that of Richards. The latter is, I believe, the correct patronymic.

Fred. Shorter was talked about as the "coming man" some four years ago, and again, later on, when he won that American handicap. But since then he has made no sign as far as I have heard.

Players were quite prepared to see Roberts beat Cook when they last met, for they argued that the former would be in so much better nerve and health than the other, after his trip to Australia. However, there is very little to chose between the two. If they ever have a match in this country, our Indian players may be certain that it will be a struggle worth going a month's journey to witness, and may we be all there to see.

MOLLER'S COD LIVER OIL.

MOLLER'S COD LIVER OIL.

MOLLER'S COD LIVER OIL. Head offices, Christiania, Norway; Branch Offices, 521, Oxford-street, London.

MOLLER'S COD LIVER OIL. Steam Manufactories at Stamsund and Kabelvang, Lofoten Islands, Norway.

MOLLER'S COD LIVER OIL.—The Standard, 13th May, 1879, in an article on "Lofoten Islands in the Season," says:—"In these Islands, when no sun is seen above the horizon, and night lasts nearly 24 hours, the tourist who braves the perils of the short but stormy passage will encounter a strange scene. Though deserted in the summer, these islands swarm with some 20,000 men in the winter, attracted by the cod fish, which arrive in millions every January to spawn. The take for the season just over has been 17,000,000 fish, which is below the average. After the fishery, the most interesting features of the islands are Mr. PETER MOLLER'S manufactories for his well known tasteless COD LIVER OIL, where thousands of barrels of the most delicate livers undergo a series of operations for about two months. The virtue of his mode of operating is its removing the oil in its natural state of purity without refinement, just as it is found in the fish while living, possessing qualities surprisingly pleasant to those accustomed to associate anyony more nauseous than taste and odour to cod liver oil. The great secret of the excellence of his oil is absolute cleanliness in manufacture, and exclusive use of fresh livers, removed from the fish immediately it is taken, rendering it as tasteless as the best olive oil. It is painful to think that the fishermen among themselves, and amid a scene of filth, make inferior sorts of oil from the stale livers; the result is generally known in the market by its very nauseous flavour."

MOLLER'S COD LIVER OIL is produced exclusively from selected livers of the finest quality, the Lofoten fishery possessing facilities which appertain to no other fishing ground in the world for the absolute exclusion of all putrid, unhealthy, and poor livers.

MOLLER'S COD LIVER OIL, being produced from such exceptional material by the process of which Mr. Peter Moller is the inventor, is entirely free from the objections and disadvantages so well known in other oils.

MOLLER'S COD LIVER OIL therefore is distinguished by the utter absence of the nauseous taste and offensive odour usual in Cod Liver Oil. Its consequent easy digestibility makes superfluous the admixture of other ingredients used for improving ordinary oils.

MOLLER'S COD LIVER OIL has received the Only and First Awards at all the great Exhibitions of England and the Continent, and beaten its competitors at the following Exhibitions, receiving the Only Prize Medal.

MEDALS, the Only Ones Awarded:—London International Exhibition, 1862—Paris International Exhibition, 1867—Bergen, 1865—Christiania National Exhibition, 1871—Drammen National Exhibition, 1873—Stockholm Scandinavian Exhibition, 1866—Naples International Exhibition, 1871—Copenhagen Exhibition, 1872—Moscow Polytechnic Exhibition, 1872—Vienna, for "Progress," 1873—Vienna, for "Merit," 1873—Philadelphia Centennial Exhibition, 1876.

MOLLER'S COD LIVER OIL has been honoured with numerous Testimonials from the highest authorities in the medical world.

MOLLER'S COD LIVER OIL. Dr. Hassall, of Royal Free Hospital, &c., says:—"I find it the purest specimen of the oil ever submitted to me for examination."

MOLLER'S COD LIVER OIL.—Dr. W. Dometti Stone, M. D., of Finsbury Dispensary, &c., says:—"It is unquestionably the best—immeasurably superior to the brown, Oil, more palatable, and far more efficacious."

MOLLER'S COD LIVER OIL.—Dr. Abbotts, M. D., M. R. C. P., late of North London Consumption Hospital, &c., says:—"It is productive of more immediate benefit than the other kinds of oil are, and it is the purest and best kind of Cod Liver Oil that can be obtained."

MOLLER'S COD LIVER OIL.—Dr. E. H. Ruddock, M.D., L.R.C.P., M.R.C.S., L.M., says:—"I am glad to be able to give my emphatic recommendation to so pure a preparation."

MOLLER'S COD LIVER OIL.—Dr. C. Harrer, M.D., L.R.C.P., of the German Hospital, says:—"It has no disagreeable taste, and on account of its careful preparation is more easily digested than other descriptions."

MOLLER'S COD LIVER OIL.—T. W. S. Locke, Esq., M. R. C. S. E., Admiralty Surgeon, &c., writes from the Home for Sick Children:—"I can confidently recommend Mr. Moller's Oil to the public as of exceptional purity and great dietetic value."
